

Pat Kelly

Executive Director, Your Health Idaho

Pat Kelly is a Boise native and local small business founder. Pat comes to Idaho's exchange with more than twenty years of diverse management experience covering a wide range of industries including telecommunications, manufacturing, and business consulting. Pat started as Your Health Idaho's director of finance but in his new role oversees the strategic direction and day-to-day operations of the exchange. Pat is also overseeing Idaho's transition off the Healthcare.gov technology to Your Health Idaho's own technology.

Dana Packer

Operations Director, Your Health Idaho

Dana Packer is a southern Idaho native. Dana started at Your Health Idaho as a process improvement leader with years of experience of planning, organizing, and managing technical and business operations and stakeholder communication. Now as the Operations Director, Dana oversees the day-to-day operations including the call center for the exchange.