

Jeremy Battershell is an Idaho native who has a passion for leading change through healthcare leadership. Jeremy started his healthcare career in 2008 as a Medical Service Corps Officer in the Idaho Army National Guard. In the Army, Jeremy served as a medical company Executive Officer, Medical Operations Officer, and Medical Logistics Officer. Jeremy served a yearlong tour in Iraq and separated from the Army as a Captain in 2017. In his civilian career, Jeremy has had roles as a Case Manager for families of fallen Soldiers, Clinic Manager in Internal Medicine, and a Practice Manager in Orthopedics. Currently, Jeremy is the Director of Provider and Client Services at BPA Health where he provides strategic leadership for BPA Health's provider network, client experience, and business development for both the Employee Assistance Program and Substance Use Disorder contract. Jeremy has a Bachelor's degree in Health Science Studies, and a Master's degree in Health Administration.