Artificial Intelligence in Healthcare: Ethical Considerations

Please join us for a presentation on artificial intelligence and the ethical implications of its role in healthcare and how AI impacts group health benefits plans.

LOCATION:

PacificSource Health Plans

408 E Parkcenter Blvd

Boise, ID 83706

March's Meeting will be a presentation by Dr. Christopher Owens and Dr. Bob Houghton:

Dr. Christopher T. Owens, PharmD, MPH is Associate Vice President for Health Sciences at Idaho State University and an associate professor of pharmacy practice. He has degrees in philosophy, pharmacy, and public health and has practiced as a pharmacist in retail and clinic settings. His teaching and research interests are in medical ethics and geriatrics. He is the president-elect of the Healthcare Ethics Special Interest Group for American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy (AACP) and speaks on many ethics-related issues in healthcare and education, including the impact of artificial intelligence.

Dr. Bob Houghton is an Associate Professor of Information Systems in the College of Business at Idaho State University. In his role as a professor, Dr. Houghton takes his real-world experiences and applies them in the classroom to help provide further insight to students. Through his research, Dr. Houghton works to find new ways of keeping data safe and accessible.
